

Important Notice for People Who Heat Their Homes with Oil!

Regardless of the age of your oil heating system...

You MAY NOT be covered if ...Oil from you fuel tank leaks into your home.

You MAY NOT be covered if... the fuel line leaks or cracks and oil damages your home.

You MAY NOT be covered if...your oil leaks into the ground or groundwater causing property damage to your neighbors or the public.

We recommend that you have your heating system inspected and maintained on a yearly basis. If your system was installed prior to 1/1/1990, a new law requires that your oil heating system be brought into compliance. Your fuel oil company should be contacted to determine compliancy.

As of 7/1/2010 ALL 1-4 family homeowners with compliant oil heating systems are eligible to purchase insurance for the above described situations.
